

Reflection: Hidden in the parable in today's gospel is another, even more damning message; a message the Pharisees would quickly have seen.

The wedding feast represents the Kingdom of God that is 'very near'. However, it is not a Kingdom for those who manipulate and control others. Nor is a Kingdom for the devious and cunning who are willing to use the sincerity of others to gain honour for themselves. People who live in this way may buy for themselves honour and power in this world, but the Kingdom of God is not for them.

The Kingdom of God is always there waiting for us. All we have to do is choose it.

Carlo Acutis Saint for the 21st Century.

On Sunday 7th September, Blessed Carlo Acutis will be canonised a Saint by Pope Leo.. He Loved computers, coding, and web design - created a famous online catalog of Eucharistic miracles. Enjoyed video games, soccer, and walks in nature. Had a big heart for animals and pets. Shared joy with friends and humor. Lived his faith daily with Mass, Rosary, and service to the poor. He badgered his parents to bring him to mass. He died in 2006, first saint to wear sneakers and jeans. Leaflets will be available at masses next Sunday. Please do take one.
