

Reflection—Today's Feast – The Body and Blood of Christ – expresses the desire of Jesus to remain with us; to be close to us always. It is also God's desire to make it happen. It is simply what Love does!

The Love that exists within God is simple. There is nothing to change it, or complicate it, or degrade it. God is just... only... Love.

The love we experience in our lives is not simple. It grows, changes, develops, is tainted by selfishness, pride and sin. However, the potential to love and be loved is still there, living within us. It is, I believe, what the Book of Genesis refers to as being created "...in the image and likeness of God...".

The more we choose to live in love, share love, grow in love and allow ourselves to be loved, the closer we come to God.
