The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and veneration of the relics of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque and St. Claude la Colombière.

Bishop Leahy will lead concelebrated Mass at 7.00pm on Friday 23rd May in St. John's Cathedral.

The concelebrated Votive Mass in honour of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus will be followed by an opportunity to venerate the relics of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque and St. Claude la Colombière.

St Margaret Mary Alacoque was born in L'Hauteclair, Burgundy, France on 22 July 1647. She was a Visitation nun and mystic. During an apparition of the Lord: "Jesus spoke of the sadness he feels because his great love for humanity receives in exchange nothing but ingratitude and indifference, coldness and contempt". St. Margaret Mary devoted her life to promoting devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus in its modern form. She died on 17th October 1690 and was canonized by Pope Benedict XV on 13th May 1920.

St Claude La Colombière SJ, was a French Jesuit priest best known as the confessor of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque. He was born in 1641 in the city of Saint-Symphorien-d'Ozon. In 1658, at the age of seventeen, Colombière entered the novitiate of the Society of Jesus at Avignon. He was ordained a priest in 1669. In 1675 he became the spiritual director of the nuns of the Monastery of the Visitation Sisters. In this way he came to know St. Margaret Mary Alacoque. He was convinced of the validity of her visions and became both her supporter and a zealous apostle of the devotion. He died on 15th February 1682 and was canonized by Pope John Paul II on 31st May 1992.
