Annual Fuel for the Poor Collection

will be held next weekend 7th/8th December. This collection takes place each winter in Limerick city just before Christmas and seeks to help some needy people through the lean period afterwards. Last year the people of the parish contributed €450 to the collection, for which we are very grateful. All money collected is passed on for distribution and any expenses incurred are met by the Knights of St Columbanus.

Trócaire's Gifts of Change Christmas Appeal
